April 18th is Linemen Appreciation Day

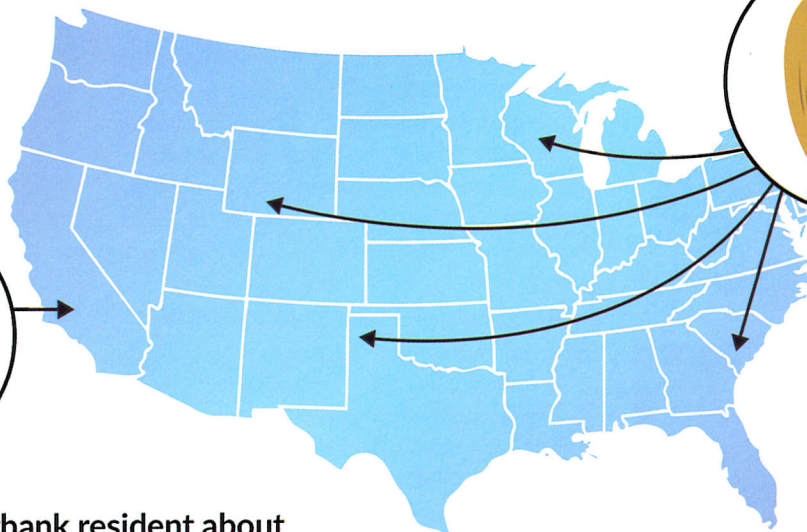

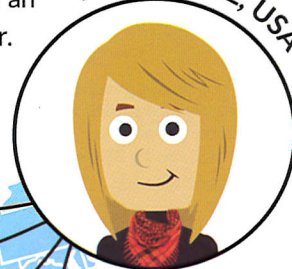

Why We Love them Watts and Watts

A person living outside of Burbank experienced an average of 132 minutes without power in a year.

BURBANK, CA

ANYWHERE, USA

It would take a Burbank resident about 6 years to experience the same amount of minutes without power!

MEMORIAL DAY CEREMONY

IT'S NEVER A GOOD IDEA TO FEED WILDLIFE!

Feeding even the smallest animal or deer can cause negative effects throughout the natural food chain.

Animals stick around if they know food is near. Mountain Lions will arrive if their prey is hanging around.

BEFORE YOU THINK ABOUT FEEDING A WILD ANIMAL,
CONSIDER THE CONSEQUENCES!

Got Drugs?

Turn in your unused or expired medication for safe disposal

LIBRARY EVENTS

COWS TO CONCRETE:

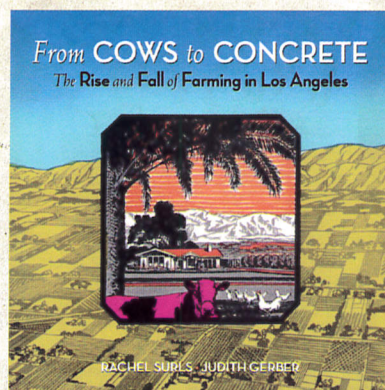

THE RISE AND FALL

OF FARMING IN LOS ANGELES

Buena Vista Branch Library

Wednesday, May 3 • 7:00 p.m.

Authors Rachel Surls and Judith Gerber look back on the history of agriculture in Los Angeles from the rancho days to the present, presenting a fascinating history of our local agricultural heritage and exploring what that history might teach us as we address issues of environment and sustainability in our urban spaces today.

FAMILY NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY

Buena Vista Branch Library

Thursday, May 25 • 7:00 p.m.

Join the underwater explorer team of Wayne and Karen Brown on a thrilling Arctic Adventure in search of Polar Bears in the frigid location of Norway via an exciting and fast-paced, high-definition video presentation. Meet animals such as reindeer, seals, walruses, and whales that are also part of the Arctic ecosystem. Bring your camera for a photo with a 9-foot long inflatable Polar Bear!

COMMEMORATING MEMORIAL DAY

Buena Vista Branch Library

Tuesday, May 30 • 7:00 p.m.

Kathy Meyer of the Pacific Battleship Foundation will present an illustrated talk that will introduce you to a remarkable historical treasure, the WWII battleship U.S.S. Iowa, now refurbished and docked in San Pedro. The Iowa was commissioned during WWII, saw action in the Pacific, and was the ship that took Franklin Roosevelt to the Tehran conference with Churchill and Stalin in 1943.
